

Asia Pacific Bioethics Education Network (APBEN)

The New Norm of Professionalism, Bioethics and Beyond

Fourth Annual Conference

The Asia Pacific Bioethics Education Network (APBEN) is holding its fourth annual conference wholly online between 21st and 22nd May 2022. The conference will be co-hosted by the Chinese University of Hong Kong and Monash University Malaysia x AMSA Monash.

Our theme - The New Norm of Professionalism, Bioethics and Beyond - recognises the emerging challenges pose to the teaching and practice of Professionalism and Bioethics. We look forward to a collaborative environment where educators and healthcare practitioners come together to initiate and engage in discussions that lead to new ideas and research.

Programme Format

We propose a mixture of keynotes, symposiums, abstract presentations, and workshops. There are two sub-themes:

- Inter-professional Collaboration in Professionalism
- Bioethics Education

What's new?

We include a student-led programme on the 2nd day of the conference! We welcome faculty members and students to contribute to the event!

Registration

There is no registration charge. Registration link will open in January 2022.

Call for Submission

We invite you to submit abstracts on the topics related to professionalism and bioethics education.

- Physician Self-Care and Resilience
- Professionalism
- Inter-professional Engagement in Clinical Setting
- Challenge of Emerging Technology on Clinical Practice
- Rethinking Teaching and Assessment Pedagogies

All abstracts must be submitted online, presented and written in English with a word limit of 350.

Deadline: 1 February 2022
